

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 13. to Monday April 17. 1676.

Milan, March 25.

OUR Governor, the Prince de Ligne, continues to give out Commission to raise Men for the service of Sicily. A considerable number hath lately been embarked at Final, to be transported thither, and more will suddenly follow.

Leghorne, April 5. From Sicily we hear, that upon the instances of the Lieutenant-Admiral de Ruyter to that Viceroy, to attempt something upon the side of the Land, while he with his Fleet approached Messina by Water, his Excellency had sent out 2000 Men, under the command of Signior Bracamonte, to attack a Post, called Paradiso, three Leagues from Messina, but that the French having had notice thereof, had sallied out of Messina with 4000 Men, had fallen upon the Spaniards, and forced them to retire with considerable loss.

Genova, April 8. A Bark of this place arrived here in 8 days from Trapano, brings advice, that the Dutch and Spanish Fleet was entred into the Fare of Messina, and that the Spaniards by Land had possessed themselves of the Capucins, a very advantageous Post, and that they very much strained Messina.

Strasbourg, April 13. The French Troops, who have had their Winter-quarters in Burgundy, Sundgow, and the Upper Alsacia, begin to march, to the general Rendezvous, which is to be held near Schlestadt, behind the Retrenchment which they have made between that place and Kastenholtz. The 11 instant, 2000 Horse and Foot, which came from Burgundy, and are going to the said Rendezvous lodged at Ruffach. The Duke of Luxemburg has been at Brisac, to take a review of the Forces that are there, and is returned again to Schlestadt. The Imperial Troops at the same time march from their quarters in Suabia, Franconia, &c. towards the Rhine, while, in the mean time, Philipsburg continues blocked up, and a Body of 14 or 15000 Men are quartered in and about Lauterburg, which may be drawn together in few hours, upon any motion of the Enemies. The Duke of Lorraine is at his Head-quarter at Eßlingen, and the Margrave of Baden Dourlach, commands at present at Lauterburg. The Governors of Philisburg and Haguenaw have received orders to restore the Merchandizes that have been arrested by them, belonging to the Inhabitants of this City.

Cologne, April 17. The Duke of Newburg so soon as the Assembly of the States of Fuliers and Berg is concluded, will part hence for Vienna. Here is a report that 4 or 5000 Men are marched from Maastricht, to set the Countrey of Fuliers under Contribution, and that because of the Treaty he is said to have concluded with the Emperor and the Allies. Yesterday five Companies marched from Bon to Treves, where the Garrison at present is very strong. From Vienna we have advice, that the day before, at five in the morning, the Empress dyed there, after a long and lingering sickness. For which that Court was in great grief.

Hamburg, April 18. Stade continues, as we told you in our last blocked up by the Lunenburg and Munster Troops; the Sieur Chayet, who commands the former expecting those of the other Confederates, in order to his beginning the Siege. The Mareschal Horne, Governor of Stade, has, it's said, put things within in a good posture, the whole Garrison, as well Suedes as Germans having voluntarily taken an Oath to defend the place to the last extremity, and so long as their Governor shall think it in a condition to be defended. Yesterday the Dukes of Zell and Hanover passed through this City incognito, to Altena, to confer with the Queen-Mother of Denmark, who is said to be arrived there, and to confer with her Majesty concerning the affair of the Duke of Holstein, not without a good appearance of accommodating those matters. Our Letters from Copenhagen of the 14 instant advised us, that a Squadron of 11 Men of War were sailed from thence, for the Coast of Pomerania, and from thence we are told that they had been seen off of the Isle of Rügen. The Sieur Trelon, the French Ambassador at Copenhagen, has, we hear, taken his leave, and is suddenly expected here, on his return to France. The affairs of Griffensels are in a very ill posture, and people talk as if several persons of quality were concerned with him, whose names are not yet made publick.

Brussels, April 21. The 19 instant, the Prince of Orange arrived at Semp, three Leagues from hence, and yesterday in the afternoon, the Duke de Villa Hermosa, our Governor, went to confer with his Highness at Vilvorde, and returned again in the evening. This morning early, the Dutch Troops begun to pass the River Senne, in order to their farther march. Those that have seen them report them to be very brave Troops. On Sunday morning we had advice, that the Enemy had besieged Conde, in which is a Garrison of 2200 Men, with all things necessary. The French of Maastricht have, we hear, surprized Sittard, a small Town belonging to the Duke of Newburg, and after having pillaged it, blew up the Walls; it is said they threaten the like treatment to several other small places in the Dutchy of Fuliers. Yesterday several Troops marched from hence to Mons.

Ditto. On Friday last the French Horse from several parts invested Conde, and the Foot being come up, the next day they begun the Siege. Last night the Batteries were finished, and this morning the Besiegers begun to fire into the Town; on Thursday it's said they will make an Assault. On Sunday the Prince of Orange arrived with his Cavalry and Dragoons at Semp, three Leagues from hence, where the Infantry came up with him yesterday. His Excellency was yesterday to give his Highness a visit at his quarters. This night we are assured his Highness will with his whole Army pass the Senne at Vilvorde, and so continue his march with all speed by this City on the Flanders side towards Mons being, as we are told, resolved either to fight the French or to oblige them to quit the Siege of Conde. Our Governor is likewise preparing to take the Field with what Troops he can draw together out of these Countreys, together with those that are expected from the Duke of Newburg and Elector of Brandenburg.

Hague,